Genoua, January 13. N. S.

THey write from Milan, that the Marquis de Leganez, their Governor, has received Orders from the Court of Spain, to ſend 4000 Foot and 500 Horſe, to ſerve in Catalonia the next Campagne, and that they are to embark at Final. There is come in a Veſſel from the Coaſt of Barbary, the Maſter whereof gives an account, that the Algerines make Preparations to continue the War againſt the King of Morocco, and intend to march into his Country the next Summer with a more numerous Army than they did the laſt.

Turin, Jan. 12. The French are ſtill at work to demoliſh the Citadel of Pignerol; and ſo ſoon as the Weather is proper for it, they will go on with the building of the new Fort near Feneſtrelle. The Duke of Savoy intends to make a farther reform of his Troops; and there is a diſcourſe, that Orders are already given to disband 20 Men out of each Company of Foot. His Royal Highneſs is gone to Nizza, to view the Gariſon and Fortifications of that Place.

Venice, Jan. 18. Some Officers that have been in Germany to make Levies for the Service of this Republick, are come back, and ſay, the Men that are raiſed may be expected here in a ſhort time. The Ships of War and Galleys that are fitting in this Arſenal, may be ready to ſail in the beginning of March, and ſuch care is taken to haſten away the neceſſary Supplies for the Fleet and Army, that in all appearance they will be in a condition to begin the Campagne very early, and undertake ſome conſiderable Enterprize the next Summer. The Turks make at the ſame time all the Efforts which the ill ſtate of their Affairs will permit, to provide for the next Campagne both againſt the Germans and Moſcovites; and though the Sultan will employ his greateſt Force in Hungary, and go thither in Perſon, yet his concern is not leſs, to hinder the farther progreſs of the Moſcovites, and intends to ſend a good Force under an Experienced Baſſa, to join the Tartars. The Letters from Rome give an account of the Death of Cardinal Taruggi; and that Cardinal Cibo Dean of the College, Cardinal Altieri, and Cardinal Franzoni, are very ill, and that there are but little hopes of their recovery conſidering their great Age. The Pope has given Orders for fitting out his Galleys, which are to return to the Levant, with 500 Land Soldiers, for the aſſiſtance of the Venetians the next Summer.

Warſaw, Jan. 18. The great expectation here at preſent is, what ſucceſs the Commiſſioners will have, who are going to meet at Lemberg to endeavour to break the Confederacy of the Troops in Poland; for much depends upon it. Moſt of the Senators are gone to aſſiſt at this Commiſſion, and the Crown General who is now in this City, intends likewiſe to repair thither. The Gentlemen of the Province of Mazovia, have at their late Dyet made the ſame Declaration as has been done in other Dyets of this Kingdom about proceeding againſt the Confederated Troops as Rebels and Traytors to their Country in caſe they do not diſperſe by the time preſcribed them, and about the French Ambaſſador's leaving this place; But he takes little notice thereof, being ſupported by a ſtrong Party, and there ſeems no great likelihood of obliging him to depart from hence before the General Dyet meets. The Queen continues ſtill here; but with intention to leave this place towards the end of the next month. An Envoy is ſhortly expected here from the King of Sueden, who hitherto has not declared himſelf one way or other with relation to the great Affair now in hand. The Elector of Brandenburg is coming to reſide for ſome time on our Frontiers, and 'tis ſaid he will have a Body of Troops in a readineſs to be drawn together in caſe there be occaſion. In the mean time things are in great diſorder in this Kingdom by the Contention of Two powerful Parties. Some are apt to believe that a 3d will be ſet up at laſt.

Vienna, Jan. 19. The Biſhop of Salſona, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain, intends to make his publick Entry in few days. The Deputies that have been here ſome time to ſollicite an abatement of the Sum of Money, which the Princes of Italy were obliged to pay the German Troops upon their leaving that Country, are now on their return home, but without obtaining any alteration, in what was agreed on. The Letters from Hungary tell us, that the Turks had drawn together a Body of 1200 Men near Panzova, in order to make an Excurſion, but the badneſs of the Weather obliged them to ſeparate and return to their Quarters. General Rabutin, who commands the Imperial Forces in Tranſilvania, has been to viſit the Troops in their ſeveral Gariſons, and has adjuſted all Matters with the States of that Country about the Proviſions they are to furniſh for their Subſiſtence during the Winter. 'Tis confirmed, that the Tartars who have been ſome time in Moldavia, and threatened to make a Ravage on the Frontiers of Tranſilvania, are marched back to Budziac.
